On Top of the World, Canadians in Top 30 Under 30

Calgary, ON (November 30, 2009) – Since 2008 Travel Agent Central has scoured the world for their 30 Under 30 Travel Agents as they countered criticism that “travel agents were losing their relevance in an online world”. Ready to take on the world – one trip at a time, Jodi Fox and Natasha Rhodes of Vision 2000 Travel Group have been named to the Travel Agent’s 30 Under 30 for 2010.

“I strive to make my clients’ travel dreams come true, and I love the creative process it involves, including creating five-year travel plans and arranging inspiring client events and evenings” said Fox.

Michael Broadhurst, EVP at Vision 2000 has very high words for Jodi proclaiming she “is truly the future of our industry—charming, professional and progressive.”

Rhodes on the other hand prides herself in adapting to both the market and the needs of her clients. A lover of nature and wildlife travel, she has visited the Galapagos, the Amazon, New Zealand and Australia, as well as the sub-Antarctic. She is constantly working to expand her knowledge and specialize in niche destinations and programs. “Her honeymoon was not spent lying on a beach, but hiking to Machu Picchu and in the Galapagos,” stated Anthony Tonkinson, director of Vision 2000 Western Canada.

“How many staffers sell $800,000 worth of leisure travel in one day? Not many,” he continued. “How many can manage that in only four bookings? Natasha just booked four space travelers on Virgin Galactic.”
